

HERSHEY AREA PLAYHOUSE

POLICY 001

WORKING WITH CHILDREN

It is the belief of the Board of Directors of Hershey Area Playhouse that the safety and welfare of a child is paramount regardless of age, culture, disability, ethnic origin, gender, language, race, religious beliefs and/or sexual identity and that everyone who may use or visit the theatre, has a right to protection from emotional, physical, sexual and verbal abuse. Because some positions with Hershey Area Playhouse in the course of their duties may have direct contact with children, Hershey Area Playhouse Board of Directors requires that all employees, contractors and/or volunteers adhere to the following policy for Hershey Area Playhouse activities involving children. “Child(ren) in the context of this policy refers to any individual under the age of eighteen (18) years.

The Board of Directors of Hershey Area Playhouse recognizes that volunteers make valuable contributions to the operation of the Playhouse and, as an all-volunteer organization, the Playhouse cannot function without a solid, reliable corps of volunteers. Therefore, the use of volunteers is fully endorsed by the Board, subject to legal requirements and reasonable operational procedures. In all cases, the use of volunteers is a decision made by the Director/Producer/Facilitator of an event and/or the Board. The Board reserves the right to determine, on a case by case basis, which persons it deems necessary to possess current background checks and clearances as noted in the following paragraphs. In addition, the Board reserves the right to refuse appointment and/or use in any Hershey Area Playhouse activity of any individual (if so designated) who either does not submit the required clearances within the time limit established by the Board or submits clearances that are determined by the Board's designee as not meeting the standard necessary for use as a volunteer in that Hershey Area Playhouse activity. The decision of the Board designee may be appealed to the Board Chairperson. The decision of the Board Chairperson shall be final.
